Where: 3rd Floor, Law Society Building, 196-198 Water Street, St. John's.

Legal administrative professionals in a law firm have the critical task of helping lawyers stay focused and productive while providing the best service possible to clients.

At this seminar and luncheon, legal administrative professionals are invited to attend a presentation by motivational speaker and author, Lisa L. Payne, who will consider the most common issues that interfere with workplace performance, professionalism and productivity and will discuss how to address these issues to ensure success in your law firm.

About the Presenter:

Lisa L. Payne

Lisa Payne is a “life transitions coach”, motivational speaker and author of two books on personal empowerment. In her presentations, she offers a unique formula to provide practical information to individuals and teams who have a desire to create massive, positive change in how they experience their work and other aspects of their lives.

Ms. Payne is a Certified Professional Coach. She holds a Masters Degree in Employment Relations and had almost 20 years management experience in the financial services industry before becoming President of Connections for Success Inc.
