

2019 Call for Nominations Newfoundland and Labrador Human Rights Award

The Newfoundland and Labrador Human Rights Commission promotes the principle that every person is equal in dignity and rights.

Nominations are now open to the public. Nominees must have made (or are currently making) a meaningful contribution to advancing and promoting human rights in Newfoundland and Labrador, in either a work or volunteer capacity. Nominees can be living or deceased, and must be current or past residents of Newfoundland and Labrador.

Deadline for nominations is October 31, 2019.

Nomination forms can be found on our website or by contacting the Commission directly to complete the form in an alternate format.
