The Parent Coordinator's Role in a High Conflict, Post-Separation Environment

Date: Tuesday, July 6, 2021

Time: 10:30 am – 12:00 pm

Seminar Overview:

Several provinces have mainstreamed the role of a Parent Coordinator in high conflict, post-separation environments. This seminar will explore the role of the Parent Coordinator as mediator, communication liaison and problem solver, and will discuss the ways they can be beneficial in navigating difficult family law matters.

Seminar Presenter:

Brian Kenny, M.S.W., R.S.W.

Brian Kenny began Kenny Assessment Services Inc. in 1999. Since this time, he has completed 102 Parenting Capacity Assessments in matters involving high conflict child custody disputes and permanency planning for children in out-of-home care. Brian has been declared an expert witness by the Supreme Court of Newfoundland (Family Division) in such matters. Brian also provides counseling and mediation services at Aspens and Oaks, a private counseling agency in St. John's.

In addition to this session, Brian teaches a Seminar entitled, "Parent Alienation, A Review of the Literature", which he has presented to interested stakeholders throughout the province.
