Documents, Electronic Documents, and Affidavits

Tuesday, April 16th at 1:00 p.m.

Join us for the final session of our 5-Part Series led by Professor Robert J. Currie, K.C. Throughout this series, attendees have been invited to explore the intricate landscape of evidence law, and in this session, participants will have the opportunity to unravel the multifaceted world of documents, electronic records, and affidavits.

Session 5 will begin by carefully unpacking the distinctions between authentication, the “original document” rule and admissibility. Our exploration will extend to the challenges of authenticating electronic documents and data, such as social media content, under the Canada Evidence Act and the NL Evidence Act. We’ll also delve into the practical but nuanced art of affidavit writing, highlighting examples of both effective and flawed affidavits, highlighting best practices and pitfalls to avoid.
