

Upcoming Continuing Professional Development Opportunity

Opinion Evidence: Admissibility, Pitfalls

Tuesday, February 20th at 1:00 p.m.

Join us for the next session of our 5-Part Series led by Professor Robert J. Currie, K.C. Throughout this series, attendees have been invited to explore the intricate landscape of evidence law, and in this session, participants will have the opportunity to delve into the challenging realm of opinion evidence.

While opinion evidence can pose formidable challenges for legal professionals, this session will provide clarity to navigate this terrain with confidence. Participants will gain valuable insights into expert qualification, the White Burgess test for admissibility, and how the law addresses expert bias.

The session will also shed light on the lay opinion exception, discussing its traditional categories and the intriguing concept of the "principled" lay opinion exception. Embark on a journey to unravel the mysteries of opinion evidence with this upcoming continued professional development opportunity.

Time is running out - 8 days left!

Register Now

Evidence Law Refresher: 5-Part Series

Recordings are available for the completed portions of this series:

1. Back to Basics: Purposes, Sources & Fundamental Concepts of Canadian Evidence Law - November 30, 2023
2. Shortcuts to Proof: How to Avoid Leading Evidence (or Lead Less of It) - January 18, 2024
3. Opinion Evidence: Admissibility, Pitfalls - February 20, 2024
4. Famous and Frustrating: The Law of Hearsay - March 19, 2024
5. Documents, Electronic Documents, and Affidavits - April 16, 2024

View More Events Here

VISIT US

This is a mandatory communication.