Expressions of Interest for Honours and Awards Committee

The Law Society is seeking expressions of interest from members who would like to join the Honours and Awards Committee.

The Committee plays an important role in recognizing the contributions of members of the legal profession. Serving on the Committee provides an opportunity to help identify and celebrate individuals whose work, and service have made a meaningful impact on the profession and the public.

To learn more about the role and responsibilities, please review the Terms of Reference.

Submit your resume or a brief summary of your qualifications to Erin Rowe at erowe@lsnl.ca before the deadline on 25 September 2026.

IMPORTANT REMINDER

Multi-Factor Authentication: Lawyer Portal

This is a reminder that Multi-Factor Authentication (MFA) was implemented on the Law Society's Lawyer Portal on 14 September 2026.

We have worked to make the transition as streamlined as possible and appreciate your cooperation as this additional security measure is introduced.

If you experience any difficulties during the process, please contact our team at (709) 579-5430 or mfa@lsnl.ca.

Thank you for your patience and cooperation as we continue to strengthen the security of our processes.

Disciplinary Matters

Through the disciplinary process, the Law Society of Newfoundland and Labrador reviews and assesses the professional conduct of its members. These assessments are made based on ethical standards outlined in the Law Society Act, 1999 (the Act), along with the Law Society Rules and the Code of Professional Conduct.

Please note that a new counsel has been issued by the Law Society. You can view the list of counsels and cautions at the link below.
